

NEWS BRIEFS

Health Plan of San Joaquin Appoints New Human Resources Vice President

Health Plan of San Joaquin (HPSJ) has announced that, effective Sept. 8, Marc Radner has joined the organization as vice president for human resources. Radner has extensive senior leadership and human resources experience with established skills in workforce optimization, performance and talent management, training, change management, leadership development, labor and employee relations, process improvement, and transactional HR.