

Health Plan

of San Joaquin

Severe Storms Still to Come in San Joaquin and Stanislaus Counties – Stay sheltered and warm as our communities face damaging winds, heavy rain, and flooding. See below for local shelter information and warming station location links.

San Joaquin County

Shelter information:

- Call 2-1-1 from your phone
- Call 800.436.9997
- Text your zip code to 898-211
- Visit <https://211sj.org/service-resources>

Warming Stations: <https://sjready.org/events/winter-storm/warming-zones.html>

You can find more info on warming shelters, flood safety tips, and weather information at SJReady.org

Stanislaus County

Shelter information:

- Call 2-1-1 from your phone
- Call 877.211.7826
- Visit <https://stanislauscounty211.org/housing/shelters/>

Warming Stations: www.stanemergency.com/naturaldisasters/extreme-cold.shtm

You can find more info on warming shelters, flood safety tips, and weather information at www.stanemergency.com

For emergencies, call 911 for help.

If you are an HPSJ member and need help getting connected to care, housing, or food, please call 888.936.PLAN (7526), TTY 711.