

Health Plan of San Joaquin

DHCS Equity and Practice Transformation (EPT) Payments Program

An opportunity to Transform Primary Care Practices

The Department of Health Care Services (DHCS) is investing in primary care! This program will give participating providers access to funds and resources to advance health equity and transform practices to improve childhood, maternal, and behavioral health.

Why health equity?

Health equity is an imperative for California payers and providers. It is a process (reducing health disparities that were amplified by the COVID-19 public health emergency) and outcome (achieving the 50 by 25: Bold Goals set by DHCS).

How can HPSJ support you?

Program funds will support practice transformation activities, leading to higher quality and more equitable care. Health Plan of San Joaquin (HPSJ) hired RecastHealth, experts in all levels health care delivery system transformation, to help qualifying providers apply for the program.

What is required for participation?

To participate in the program, providers must:

- Contract with HPSJ as a primary care provider who serve Medi-Cal members.
- Meet eligibility requirements set by DHCS.
- Submit a formal application.

BOLD GOALS: 50x2025
